MIXED UP.

I've wandered through the village, Tom,
Along with Anna Lee,
To listen to the mocking bird,
In the cottage by the sea.
Reed's black mare can't be beat,
While coming through the rye,
Let me kiss him for his mother,
Says the spider to the fly.

The colored girl and poor Old Ned
Now swell our national song;
I'd offer thee this hand of mine—
But take your time Miss Long.
I'm lonely since my mother died—
Susannah don't you cry,
We're all sodding through this world,
Then root, hog, or die.

Hark! I hear an angel sing,
Ah, daddy, he's struck ill—
We're coming Father Abraham,
Along with Annie Lyle.
The song my mother used to sing,
The wearing of the green,
The girl I left behind me,
To-day I'm sweet sixteen.

The nice young man and Fairy Belle,
Are swinging in the lane—
The captain with his whiskers,
Has marrying on the brain.
We will rally round the flag, boys,
For Jonny stole the ham—
Yankee Doodle, Hail Columbia,
And I don't care a cent.

A Card.

To the People of Yuba, Butte and Plumas:
Two of the members of the Board of Supervisors of Plumas County, actuated by motives best known to themselves, refused to make the subscription required by law to the capital stock of the Oroville and Virginia City Railroad Company, and fearing that such refusal might not so weaken the Company as to prevent them from carrying out their enterprise, passed a resolution requesting the Attorney General of the State to proceed by Quo Warranto to destroy the Company. That resolution standing unrepelled, and a suit threatened against the Company accomplished what a refusal to take the stock would not, and does so embarrass its action as to disappoint the hopes of the company entertained of inaugurating the commencement of the work at Oroville on the Fourth of July next. But they assure the people interested in this great enterprise that, though the power of the State be wielded against the Company, there need be no fears of the result. That the corporation is perfect in every respect, and that, under no circumstances, will the franchise be allowed to pass into the hands of parties hostile to your best interests. The power of the State unjustly wielded against them, cannot defeat but only delay the enterprise. The citizens of Plumas County give us the assurance that, if material aid should not be afforded the Company, they will as soon as their voice can be lawfully heard, at least prevent the power of the County from being so wielded as to hinder and delay its work. By order of the Board of Directors.

General Grant, Who will Have Him?
We are told that no politics is expected from our paper, and we have no intention of meddling in any. We have kept aloof all the time, except when men like Grant, Butler, Wilson, Ellis, Brownlow, and others of this kind abused and outraged the Jew. Then we did not care for the cry of treason raised at everybody who had anything to say, not endorsed by the censor in Washington, and struck with both fists. Worse than General Grant none in this nineteenth century in civilized countries has abused and outraged the Jews, officially in broad daylight and most barbarously. If there are any among us who lick the feet that kick them about, and like dogs, run after him who has whipped them; if there are persons small enough to receive indecencies and outrages without resentment, and creep about their tormentors for selfish purposes, we hope their number is small, and we know it is too small to be counted in comparison to those who will not vote for a man and oppose him who outraged the Jew in a manner as General Grant did. Here is the story in full.

The following is an Order from General Grant which we copy verbatim:
HEADQUARTERS 13th ARMY CORPS,
DEPT OF THE TENNESSEE, OROVILLE,
Miss., December 17, 1862.

General Order No. 11.
The Jews, as a class, violating every regulation of trade established by the Treasury Department orders, are hereby expelled from the department within twenty-four hours from the receipt of this order by post commanders.

They will see that this class of people are furnished with passes and required to leave; and any one returning after such notification will be arrested and held in confinement until an opportunity occurs of sending them out as prisoners, unless furnished with permits from these headquarters.

No passes will be given this people to visit headquarters for the purpose of making personal application for trade permits.

By order of major General GRANT.
JOHN A. RAWLING, A. A. G.
Official: J. LOVELL, Captain and A. A. G.

This barbarian Order caused a general outcry of horror all over this country, in the public press, public meetings and resolutions, in any and every form. In Congress, Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, moved the following resolution:

WHEREAS, On the 17th day of December, 1862, Major Gen. Grant, commanding the department of the Tennessee, did publish the following Order, to wit: (Here followed the above Order verbatim). And in pursuance thereof did cause many peaceable citizens of the United States, residents in said department, to be expelled therefrom, within twenty-four hours without allegation of special misconduct on their part, and on no other proof than that they were members of a certain religious denomination, and

WHEREAS, The said Order in its sweeping condemnation of a whole class of citizens, without discriminating between the guilty and innocent, is illegal and unjust, and in its execution tyrannical and cruel; therefore

Resolved, That the said Order deserves the earnest condemnation of this House and of the President as Commander-in-Chief.

This was lost in the House. The vote was a very close one—56 voted to table and 53 to pass it.

The Order No. 11 fell most savagely upon the old Jewish residents in that department; but there was no Senators from those States in Washington, except from Kentucky. Therefore Senator Powell, of Kentucky, in behalf of his outraged constituents, introduced in substance the same preamble and resolution in the Senate, where it was defeated in a most shameful manner, where but seven, viz: Messrs. Davis, Harding, Latham, NeSmith, Powell, Scalesbury, and Wilson of Missouri, had the moral courage and moral rectitude to stand by an outraged class of their fellow citizens.

President Lincoln could not persuade himself for a long time that Gen. Grant issued that order; but when Mr. Haskell, of Paducah, Kentucky, succeeded in convincing him of the fact, he immediately revoked it, and expressed his indignation at the outrage in the strongest terms in presence of Gurley, Lillenthal, Wise from Cincinnati, and Bijur from Louisville.

There was nobody at the time to defend the despotic and barbarous order of Gen. Grant, not a voice was heard in its favor or defence; but plenty besides President Lincoln, seven Senators and fifty-three members of Congress, in its condemnation. Every free man felt outraged by the lawless ukase of a military chieftain, whom they now want to force upon us as chief magistrate of the country.

We have to say this: As a Jew, we can not, and will not vote for a man who has done us a more shameless injustice than any man in power, in this century, has done us in any civilized country. Therefore, we hope and expect that the entire Jewish press will come out boldly and justly against Gen. Grant as President of the United States. Again, as a citizen who loves his country and his free institutions, who considers it his solemn duty to protect justice and freedom as much as it may be in his power, we can not, and must not entrust the banner of justice and freedom to the hands of a man who, when possessing the brief power of a commander of a volunteer army (and among them thousands of Jews) abused it so outrageously, and trampled upon his fellow-citizens, because they were too weak to resist. That man in our estimation, is unfit to be chief of a republic whose citizens claim equal justice and equal freedom. As a man, we feel an aversion to every person who disrespects the just claims of humanity and justice, and Gen. Grant by his Order No. 11, is guilty of that disrespect.

That is part of what we have to say on this point, and we will say it over and over again, until the masses shall know and appreciate it; till the feeling of honor shall awake also with those who cry with the millions, laugh or weep by order of their newspaper, cheer or scorn ad libitum. When a few scanty poverty-stricken insurance companies in New York offended the Jews by an Order not to insure their property, there was noise, meetings, resolutions, etc.; now when one who outraged a Jew beyond measure or comparison, one who outraged the Jew, the man and the citizen, the laws of the United States and the sacred cause of justice and humanity, is proposed as President of the United States, nobody has the courage or rectitude to talk. Is this principle? Is it manful? Is it honorable? Let onwards be silent for utility's sake; but let men speak out honorably.—Cincinnati Israelite.

PERSONAL.—We received (says the Butte Record) a call on Thursday evening, from Mr. Gear, formerly of the Plumas National, but now Prosecuting Attorney of Plumas county. He is going to buck the Engine off the Oroville and Virginia City railroad track, or die; and exhibits the spunk and judgment of the bull that assaulted the railroad train. Half an hour's conversation with him stuffed us to our full capacity with such stereotyped phrases as "swindle!" "swindlers!" "rascals!" etc. We had almost become a convert to the total depravity of railroad corporations, when he saved us from such a horrid belief by informing us that he had organized a company to construct the Beckworth Pass road as soon as the "swindlers" who have surveyed it can be ousted from their franchise! Selah!

A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.—The first and second resolutions passed at the Chicago Convention are not correctly printed in the Republican journals of this State. According to the Chicago Post, the resolutions read as follows:

1st. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the restoration policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption of all the measures of Congress for the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion—the Constitution securing equal civil and political rights of the people—and we regard it as the duty of the Government to maintain these States, and prevent the return in them of anarchy and misrule.

2d. The guarantee of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men of the South was demanded by the considerations of public safety—of gratitude and of justice, and must have meaning. Still the subject of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

The resolutions as published in the National and other papers, read thus: First.—We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evidenced by the adoption in a majority of the States lately in rebellion, of Constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all; and we regard it as the duty of the Government to sustain these Constitutions and prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy and military rule.

Second.—The guaranty of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratitude and justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

Our friends everywhere, who may at any time have knowledge of facts of local importance—accidents, accidents, mining news, doings of public meetings, improvements, curiosities, etc.—would confer a favor upon us and our readers generally by sending notice of the same to this office. ## LOCAL ITEMS.

ON! HO!—We understand that Mr. Gear has published a card in which he denies being in any way interested in the new R. R. Company. B-o-s-h.

FAVORS.—We are indebted to J. B. Overton, County Clerk, for a copy of the amended Registry law of the State. It is published in pamphlet form and will be distributed to all the election officers.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, Mr. J. Crawford met with a severe accident while at work in his claims at Greenhorn. A large boulder caved in upon him, crushing his ankle very badly.

CRESCENT.—The Crescent mill is again stopped. On Tuesday night the drum head of the cylinder cracked, and it will be necessary to get a new one from the foundry. It will cause a ten days' delay.

DIDN'T COME.—A load of cherries and other luxuries destined for this place, which started from Oroville last week, did not come through. The snow between Buckeye and Buck's was the cause, of forcing the team to take the back track.

QUERY?—Do all of those who furnished the "great call" with money to go to Sacramento to commence suit against the O. & V. C. R. R. Co. have an interest in the new railroad corporation? Was the matter all arranged beforehand? Who knows?

DAILY.—On and after Monday next, stages will leave Oroville immediately after the arrival of the cars from this city for Strawberry Valley, La Porte and Howland Flat. Stages also leave this city on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, connecting with La Porte stages at Forbestown. Appeal.

A CHANGE.—The Sage Brush states that nearly all the freight for Honey Lake Valley and that section of the State, will hereafter come over the C. P. R. R. to Reno, and thence to Susanville. The distance is only 75 miles, while to Oroville it is nearly one hundred.

CONNECTION.—The President of the Feather River and Beckworth Pass Railroad Co. informs us that we were mistaken in our statement rendered last week, that Esq. Seabury was Vice President of the Co. We don't know whether to make an apology for our mistake to the company or to Seabury.

BACK CHANNEL.—A correspondent of the Mountain Messenger, writing from Sawpit, in speaking of the New York Co., says: "There was some doubt heretofore in regard to a back channel in the hill, but all doubts are now at an end as they have now struck through in one of their last gangways and struck the best kind of gravel."

ENTERPRISE.—Mr. Wilmet, the Superintendent of the Enterprise Company at the North Arm of Indian Valley, returned this week. The mill will not be built until further acquaintance with the ore is made. Much lead is found, which is very intricate, with copper and silver. Two hundred pounds of the ore was sent below this week and a ton is soon to be forwarded.

SPORTS.—We hear it reported that several trials of courage, strength, endurance and science between the best "birds" in the county will come off in Quincy on the 4th of July. A number of matches have already been made and the money put up. It is expected that arrangements will be effected to fight a team—Indian Valley against American Valley game chickens—at the same time.

ROADS.—It is a fact which will admit of no denial that Mr. Ben. Colburn has made the best road overseer we have had in this District for the past three years. He has done more work, expended the money more judiciously and placed the roads in better repair during the short time he has been in office than was done in the three previous years. Uncle "Ben" should have a life lease of the office.

FEW.—In looking over the Statutes of 1867-8, we find but three or four laws which are especially applicable to this county. One act repeals the Wagon Road Bond Law which was passed at the previous session of the Legislature; another provides for the issuing of bonds to the O. & V. C. R. R. Co., an act which our citizens are pretty well posted upon; another for the issuance of a warrant to J. H. Yeates, and the other changing the boundary line of the county. The amendment to the road law, proposed by Mr. Buckbee, did not pass, neither did the Sage Brush War appropriation bill.

RETURNED.—Mr. Hiram L. Gear, the District Attorney of this county, and whom the Butte Record clubs the "great calf" of the mountains, returned from his trip from below on Thursday's stage. What arrangements he effected with the Central Pacific Railroad Company, or what amount of stock he holds in the new Company, we are unable to state. The petition for a writ of quorum against the O. & V. C. R. R. Co. was granted, but whether or not action has yet been commenced we are not informed. We do not doubt that Gear is acting for the benefit of the county—of course he is! He is too honest to do otherwise. He wouldn't take a fee from the Central Pacific, no sir. He ain't on it. He informed the Editor of the Butte Record that he had formed a new Railroad Company while at Sacramento, that would build the Railroad, that the other Company were a set of base swindlers, but that his Company were all right. The citizens of Plumas will be under a debt of lasting gratitude to Mr. G. for the interest he has taken in their behalf.

Indian Valley Letter.

TAYLORVILLE, June 10th, '88.
DEAR UNION:—Unless things change in this valley, and something happens occasionally, your correspondent is going to quit. As the critics say of a prose play, "it lacks incident." I thought this week, that the advent of an agent in the interest of the Republicans, and who is organizing secret societies of that ilk, would furnish an item, but as Colstream said of Vesuvius, "there's nothing in it." Humbly, unless well managed, is a poor investment. It can not be peddled in retail quantities with either dignity or profit. I have reluctantly learned and accepted the fact, that it constitutes the bulk of American politics, at least half of religion, and a share even in science, as I must be cultivated; but like the cultivation of any other vegetable, there must be a rotation of crops. You can't run the same old humbug year after year with full returns.

Now, there is no good sense, in America, in secret political societies. There is no legitimate purpose which is not only more honorably, but better advanced openly than by secrecy. For our citizens to dodge about in the night time, upon the appointment of some strolling "Colonel," is not only un-American, but silly. No great party works by these means; no man is military enough to hurt, who will make himself an itinerant charlatan. The truth is, I reckon, that Gen. Hawkins, Col. Small Arms, Maj. Firecrackers, et al omnia, act in the employ, not of the party, but of themselves, and fish for patriotic suckers. If not, the captains of the "National United Republican" machine, have probably concluded that they are nothing unless mysterious; that their programme like the statismanship of Grant, must be the programme of the owl and donkey. This is indeed very cheap political goods, but their higher priced articles have staled upon the market. Not over a dozen here took that pewter on Saturday night, though no doubt, by keeping the thing "demition s'y," there will be men with more curiosity than sense to swell its numbers. Well, if the thing is worth a pint of pinats it is better than nothing perhaps. Yours, FIZIG.

JOCKEY CLUB RACES.—A Jockey Club was organized in this town on Wednesday last. J. E. Edwards was elected President; J. H. Hock, J. T. Byers, J. Hargrave, C. E. Smith, S. T. Brewster, Vice Presidents; L. E. Garland, Treasurer; J. B. Overton, Secretary; J. H. Yeates, Steward. As will be seen by reference to the advertisement in another column, the Club offer $1,350 in purses for races to be run on the Quincy Race Course, commencing on the 21st of July. It is the largest amount ever before offered at any turf meeting at Quincy. It is expected that a large number of the best horses in the State will be present to compete for the prizes. The wagon road to La Porte will be open in a short time, consequently, all horse s that will be taken to La Porte for the August races, will probably come first to Quincy.

ACCIDENT.—The Virginia Tresspass of the 12th, says: Yesterday morning Mr. E. D. Springer, of Honey Lake Valley, met with a terrible accident, which came very near losing his life. He was driving a high spirited horse on the Geiger grade, and when just beyond Hall's Pioneer laundry his horse took fright, in passing a team, and sprang over the grade, at that point very high. Springer was hurled from his carriage and rolled a distance of at least three hundred feet among the jagged rocks. He was taken up by J. W. Hemenway, in an insensible condition, and received proper surgical attention. He is bruised from head to foot, and has several ugly wounds on his head, but, strange to relate, no broken bones. His horse—worth at least $1,500—was severely cut. It was a narrow escape from death.

SOME.—A gentleman who has been there during the past week, and consequently should be well posted, informs us that in places on Clermont Hill back of this town, the snow is at least forty feet deep.

NOTICE.—See notice of an assessment levied by the Directors of the Alturas Mining Co., published in another column.

TOLD HIM.—During the examination of one of the witnesses before the impeachment committee, Butler asked him if he had written a certain letter, the witness replied that he had, but that it was stolen from his room. "Who stole it?" inquired Butler. "I expect you did," responded the witness. The witness was placed under arrest, but soon liberated.

PROGRESSING.—The articles of incorporation recently referred to, says the Union, as having been formed under the name of the Feather River and Beckworth Pass Railroad Company, have at length been filed in the Secretary of State's office. Capital stock of the Company $8,000,000, divided into shares of $100 each; principal place of business, Quincy, Plumas county; Directors: Amos F. Blood, Wm F. King, G. P. Cornell, I. N. Tuern, and S. F. Seabury. This Company is the organized opposition to the Oroville and Virginia City Railroad Company—has commenced suit against the latter Company for the purpose of destroying it—and obtaining their route, surveys, maps, etc. We cannot but regard this opposition as a foolish and wicked one—foolish, because they cannot reasonably hope to wrest the franchise, route and survey from the original company—and wicked, because its only effect will be to retard, if it does not defeat, the railroad up Feather river. It is well known that the Oroville and Virginia City Railroad Company disclaim all intention to compel Plumas county to issue the bonds in accordance with the Act of the Legislature, and intended to seek other assistance, provided the county declined to render the proposed assistance. It will thus be seen that the Feather River and Beckworth Pass Company are not simply struggling to prevent Plumas county from issuing her bonds, but are actually contending for the franchise, route, surveys, etc.—in point of fact—for all that has been accomplished by nearly two years labor of the original company. All this is sought to be accomplished under the plea that the original company is a "damnable swindle"—that it was intended to procure the Plumas county bonds, and not build the road. If such was really the intention of the original company to perpetrate such a fraud, we incline to the opinion that a small proportion of the bonds to be thus obtained from the county, would have effectually silenced the blatant mouths of those who are incessantly bellowing "damnable swindle!" "damnable swindle!" The fact that this opposition was not bought off, is tolerably fair evidence that the original company intended no swindle—that whatever assistance the county rendered was to be used, not in silencing opposition, but in constructing the road. These opposition gentlemen are careful to assure every one that they converse with that they are in favor of a railroad on the Feather River route! Opposing those who are endeavoring to build such road, is not the proper way to secure public confidence in their professions. Had these gentlemen subscribed the $14,500 paid in on the organization of their company, to the stock of the original company, they might have prevented the company from swindling the county, and made a united and successful effort for the construction of the road. That would have been much better proof of their being in favor of the road than making war upon those who are endeavoring to build it. It is simply loo as if these opposition gentlemen were determined to make a rats, and fail to make it from the company, have continued to take it in the shape of a fee from the county for conducting a suit against the railroad company. They may thus involve the county to the extent of $225,000, and even then bast that they have saved the county $5,000! That is about all there is of this opposition to the Oroville and Virginia City Railroad Company, and it should be frowned down by every citizen and property holder, and treated with contempt by every Greaser and Chinaman in Plumas county who has an idea above a pack train or a bamboo pole as a means of transportation.—Butte Record.

Too BAD.—The radical papers can not decide upon a candidate for the New York convention to nominate. It bothers them very much but their agony on that score will soon be over.

Deaths.

Killed by Indians, near Pinos Altos, New Mexico, on Monday, May 13th 1868, Virgil Mastin, late President of the P. A. Mining Co., in the thirty-third year of his age.

The above sad intelligence which sent a thrill of grief and sorrow to the hearts of his relatives and friends in this place, arrived by the mail of to day. The deceased formerly resided in this town, and was well known throughout this county as an honest, upright and honorable gentleman. Thus another spirit has passed with noiseless steps through the ever open portals of the Realm of Shades. We are reluctant to bid him farewell, but it has pleased the All Wise, to call him hence. Farewell, then, friend, "thou art not lost, but gone before."

At Taylorville, June 17th, 1868, William Madison H. Hanks, a native of Kentucky, aged 41 year.

Births.

At Rush Creek, May 2nd, 1893, the wife of L. Reed, of a daughter.

At Du Glen (Nev.), May 1st, the wife of J. W. McWilliams, of a daughter.
